"Fashion should not cost the earth."
(Zola Amour)

TIME TO ACT IS NOW

People are changing so fast
As fast fashion doesn't know the last
If the goal is to boast
Then Rana Plaza will call another cost

Slow fashion is another choice
More awareness can raise the voice
If slow fashion was a trend
Suffering in Bangladesh would come to an end

Now fashion is in the hands of girls and boys
Buying less can change the course
Exploitation is, of course, worse
Now it is time to save resource

The main goal is to reach sustainability
But polyester does not know recyclability
If it is not for profitability
Using cotton and microplastics would lead to accountability
Since there is no stability
Saving environment seems an "inability"

BUY LESS
CHOOSE WELL
